

Welcome to Sinara!

Founded in 2002, Sinara Capital Management S.A. (SCM) is a Geneva-based investment company providing private wealth management and family office services. We offer customized financial strategies and services for high net worth individuals, their families, and their business interests. Our services include:

- Investment portfolios tailored to appropriately balance risk and after-tax returns
- Coordination of diverse financial advisors and services
- Investment advisory services and management of alternative investments

SCM outperforms traditional institutional wealth management structures by achieving a detailed understanding of our clients' preferences and structuring well diversified long-term strategies.
